

=Vietnam Veterans Day at Lincoln High School=

Sixteen years have passed
Night Mares and Flash Backs
Dismissed in numbers and intensity
But still not gone

Vietnam was then
It lingers
Vietnam is here to stay
The Vietnam war just doesn't go away

Though it was fought on a foreign land
Vietnam was brought home
Brought home with everyone
We live under its dome

Therapy so much needed
Nowhere to go
The school program was our answer
Only a few people could even or ever know

The school Lincoln High
And even the rest
Seemed to set the Veterans
Myself included to a much needed rest

So many to thank
The list is to long
You know who you are so thanks
But somehow we are not yet gone

We came a few
Intensity grew
Years saw numbers increases
Now I can say, we'll all miss you

From myself and the Chapter too
This is written to send a hearty well deserved
Thank You
For my 16 years with you at Lincoln High School
